

Time

When we talk about time, we like to use the following prepositions: at, in, on.
Here are some tips on when to use which preposition. Read them and then fill in the gaps below.

IN

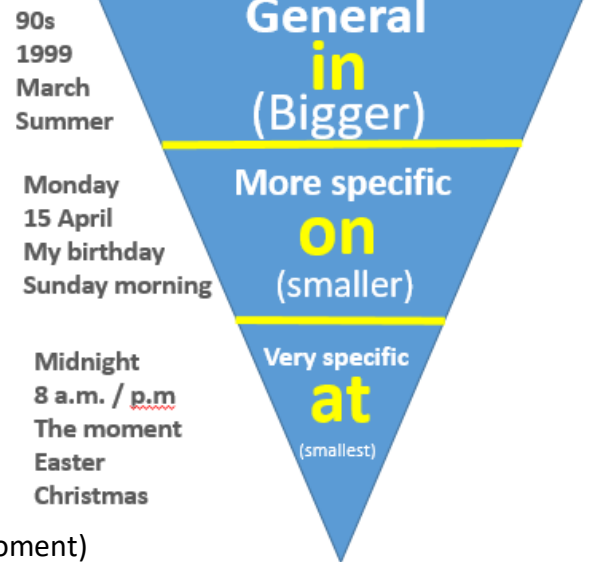

- Years
- Weeks
- Seasons
- Periods of time during the day

ON

- Days
- Dates

AT

- Time
- Specific periods (at night/the weekend/the moment)

1. Our company closes for 2 weeks _____ summer.
2. I usually have English lessons _____ Mondays.
3. John is a part-time worker. He only goes to work _____ the mornings.
4. "What time is the conference call?"
"We are dialing in _____ 2pm."
5. We will see each other _____ 2 weeks.
6. Peter was born _____ Labour Day.
7. She sends out all calendar invites for the next day _____ 10 o'clock _____ night.
8. "Can you please help me?"
"I'm sorry, I'm busy _____ the moment."
9. Anette said she would be with us _____ a minute.
10. The competition will take place _____ 10 July 2020.
11. Do you usually work _____ the weekend?
12. I'm done with my spreadsheet. Let's go for lunch _____ noon.
13. Technology was not as advanced _____ the 1980s.
14. We have our regular team update sessions _____ Wednesday morning.
15. The apprentices get off work _____ 3 o'clock _____ the afternoon.

1. in 2. on 3. in 4. at 5. in 6. on 7. at, at 8. at 9. in 10. on 11. at 12. at 13. in 14. on 15. at, in