

All of the following statements about GOLDBECK are true. Decide which ones are explicitly mentioned in the image film and which ones we as the audience imply from looking at the pictures.

1. Engineers at GOLDBECK are concerned about the economic efficiency of construction and usage of a building.
2. GOLDBECK specializes in the construction of large buildings.
3. When the company was set up, GOLDBECK was a KG, not a GmbH.
4. Ortwin Goldbeck started out with a small metalworking shop.
5. He introduced the concept of industrial production to the building industry in 1969.
6. GOLDBECK began constructing buildings with serial components at around 1985.
7. They can guarantee high quality at relatively low construction costs.
8. They are specialists in the construction of warehouses and multi-storey car parks.
9. GOLDBECK has more than 40 locations all over Europe.
10. They advise their clients from the beginning onwards.
11. 3-D glasses are used to help visualize the future buildings.
12. Builders have a personal contact at GOLDBECK.
13. Builders can talk to the specialists at GOLDBECK themselves.
14. Buildings are designed with their future use in mind.
15. BIM is the name of GOLDBECK's information hub for interlinking all the processes.
16. All the people working on the construction sites wear protective clothing.
17. CAD plays an important role in designing buildings.
18. The staff at GOLDBECK are interested in improving the way the company works.
19. People working for GOLDBECK can act independently.
20. Ortwin Goldbeck has three sons. 